

IMPACT MARANA

A MARANA CHAMBER PROGRAM

Applications are due Monday, June 29th 2026 by 4pm

Impact Marana, a program of the Marana Chamber of Commerce (MCC), is an immersive experience taking a dedicated cohort of business and community leaders through an in-depth behind the scenes look at the many dynamic sectors of the Marana community. While building community leadership skills, the Impact Marana cohort will receive information and experiences focusing on public safety, education, agriculture/agritourism, human services, economic development, environmental resources, sustainability, arts, history and culture and so much more.

This program is designed for participants to gain a comprehensive understanding of all facets of Marana and to be a more impactful business and community leader driving the future of our community.
